FATHER CONSTANTINE'S REPORT

THE SACRAMENT OF HOLY COMMUNION

One of the first things done when man landed on the moon was to receive Holy Communion. Buzz Aldrin, one of the first two men on the moon, had received permission to bring communion along with him. He said, "I poured the wine into the chalice our church had given me. In the one-sixth gravity of the moon the wine curled slowly and gracefully up the side of the cup. It was interesting to think that the very first liquid ever poured on the moon, and the first food eaten there, were communion elements..."

"I sensed especially strongly my unity with our church back home, and with the Church everywhere.

"I READ: 'I AM THE VINE, YOU ARE THE BRANCHES. Who-ever remains in me, and I in him, will bear much fruit; for you can do nothing without me.'"

"Give us this Bread always"

In the sixth chapter of John's Gospel Jesus said to His disciples:

"Truly, truly, I say to you, it was not Moses who gave you the bread from heaven; my Father gives you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven, and gives life to the world...I am the bread of life. Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. This is the bread which comes down from heaven, that man may eat of it and not die. I am the living bread which came down from heaven, if anyone eats of this bread, he will live for ever; and the bread which I shall give for the life of the world is my flesh" (John 6:32-33;48-51). The disciples then turned to Jesus and said, "Lord give us this bread always". (John 6:34).

Jesus complied with their request. He gave us the Bread of Life, Himself, in the Sacrament of the Eucharist:

"For my flesh is food indeed, and drinks my blood abides in me, and I in him" (John 6:55-56).

FOOD AND LOVE

Food and love are closely related. Our first experiences of love as infants are associated with being fed. When the baby wakes up hungry and is fed, he experiences love. So God chose food and a meal to help us experience His love.

Jesus often chose meals as the place to reveal Himself and His love for the world. At the wedding feast in Cana (John 2:1-11) He manifested His glory to His disciples. Jesus used the meal to which He was invited in the house of Matthew (Mat. 9:10-13) as an occasion to welcome publicans and sinners to His kingdom. Dinner at the home of Simon and Pharisee (Luke 7:36-50) became the place of forgiveness of sinful woman. The meal taken at the home of a pharisee on a sabbath day (Luke 14:1-6) became the place where Jesus healed a man suffering from dropsy. Dinner at the home of Zacchaeus (Luke 19:1-10) was turned into a celebration of salvation. "Today salvation has come into this house..." (Luke 19:9). On Easter evening, after a long walk and a lengthy conversation, it was in the breaking of the bread that the disciples of Emmaus recognized Him as the risen Lord (Luke 24:13-35). So it is that Christ comes to us today pre-eminently in the breaking of the bread. There we encounter and recognize the living Christ as in no other way.

Jesus came to the meals He attended not just to receive but also to give. He used the occasion of the meal to reveal Himself as Comforter, Healer, Forgiver, Giver of life and Risen Lord. What people came expecting of the meal: satisfaction of hunger, nourishment and fellowship, He becomes the Bread of Life. For people who thirst, He becomes the water of life. He becomes the One Who restores, renews, forgives, heals and gives life. Thus every meal Jesus attended-not just the Last Supper-became, in a way, a sacramental meal inasmuch as He used something human-a meal- to communicate the salvation that comes from God. Just as the Lord appeared to His disciples after His death, while they were eating, so He appears to His disciples today in a meal, i.e., the Eucharistic meal of the Last Supper. Rev. 3:20 refers to union with Christ in the form of a meal taken with Him: "Behold, I stand at the door and knock; if any one hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and eat with him, and he with Me."

"We are what we eat"

"This is my body," said Jesus. To eat the body is to participate in life eternal, to become "partakers of divine nature". It was by eating that man got into trouble in the garden of Eden. And it is by eating that salvation comes. "Unless you eat the flesh of the Son of man and drink his blood, you have no life in you" (John 6:53). "There is no life without food. There is no new life without new food. Since this new life is the life of Christ, it is Christ Himself Who becomes the gift of food".

PRESIDENT'S REPORT : YVONNE CAYAS

Hi there fellow GOSPYANS,

I hope everyone had a Happy Easter and didn't eat too many Easter eggs !

I'd like to firstly congratulate Miss Greek Community 1989, Miss Katrina Sclavos, and runner up Miss Barbara Comino.

Aboveall, I'd like to congratulate Miss GOSPYA, Zam Pavlakis who made a stunning entrant and made GOSPYA very proud to have her represent us. Congratulations Zam!

I'd also like to congratulate the other entrants who I'm sure made their sponsoring associations very proud to have them representing them. Congratulations!

Secondly, I'd like to thank you all for your support at our second BIG function at FRIDAY'S. It was great to see youth attending from other youth associations and their committee members as well. I'd like to generally thank everyone who attended and hope that the evening was enjoyed by all.

Coming up is our Fashion Parade on 16 July. I hope to see you all there for another big night of fun and fashion with modelling by our very own GOSPYAN supermodels. Who knows maybe a second Elle Mac Pherson will be discovered!

Most importantly, I'd like to draw your attention to the efforts of Dyan Mersiades. Dyan has initiated voluntarily a Cancer Fund Research fund raiser aimed at raising enough money to equal the total Greek population of Queensland. It's her aim to collect $1 per Greek person.

I'm sure you all agree that Dyan should be commended on her initiative and efforts. I hope that as GOSPYANS you will make a conscious effort to donate $1 and help others who are less fortunate than ourselves. GOOD LUCK DYAN.

Finally. I'd like to wish all our GOSPYAN students the best of luck in your exams and hope you have a safe holiday. For those who aren't students enjoy the winter months ahead and don't drown in all the rain!

SEE YOU AT OUR FASHION PARADE IN JULY

YVONNE CAYAS!

SOCIAL REPORT

Zam Pavlakis / Fiona Zouppas

Hello again.

Firstly, we would like to apologise on behalf of GOSPYA, to the members who were turned down because they were not carrying I.D., but unfortunately Fridays were quite strict on underage drinking. It should almost be habit now to carry I.D. to any function you attend, just in case.

Overall a great night was had, and enjoyed by all.

UP AND COMING FUNCTIONS

* 16 JULY -- GOSPYAN FASHION PARADE

This year the parade will be held at MARY STREET. The night will definitely be an exciting event with heaps of Gospyans showing their style on the catwalk and giveaways for the people who attend. A night not to be missed.

* 7 OCT -- DEBUTANTE BALL

The Ball this year will be held once again at the Greek Club. Girls, it is not too late to put your name down, so grab a partner and give Fiona a call at work on 849 5043 or Zam on 229 9550. Practises are due to start early July. Advertising for the ball magazine is also needed.

If anyone has any suggestions for ideas on any part of the social scene, don't hesitate to call us.

We want to have a good time as much as you do.

Until the next exciting function,

Party on

Fiona and Zam

Returning To Our First Love!

If we listen carefully, we will surely hear this call from Heaven. The Christians of Asia Minor first heard it some 2000 years ago. "I have something against you, because you have left your first love." (Rev. 2:4). As their spiritual descendants, we, too, have "left our first love". God has something against us too.

As individuals, we have given first place in our hearts and lives to material pursuits. We give only lip service to Jesus rather than our unconditional love to Him. Even as a church we aren't inclined to engage our hearts in our relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ. The divine Bridegroom expects a conjugal love from His Bride that is all-consuming and passionate

When the liturgy is finished, we usually want to change the subject. We desire to talk about somebody (other than Jesus) and about something on the lighter side. After all, who wants to gain the reputation of a fanatic with a one-track mind... the one that leads to Heaven!

The priest just finished preaching about Christ and why we should submit to His teachings but no one wants to continue the subject. It's not in good taste to talk about "religion" over coffee. It's anti-social to talk about Jesus.

It's time to turn back to our "first love", the love for Jesus. He wants our love. It's not enough to have faith. How can two people unite in marriage without a fervent love burning in their hearts?

The Lord's warning still stands: "If you don't turn from your sins, I will come to you and take your lamp stand from its place" (Rev 2:5). Not only our churches, but our very lives, our families, marriages, ministries and careers can be reduced to a pile of ruins, unless we return to our first love!

VIEWPOINT

For this month's editorial I would firstly like to thank Steve for putting last month's newsletter together. I've been told that to put one of these newsletters together requires a lot of effort, especially on photocopying day. If you've seen the photocopier that we use to produce the newsletter, then you would understand why praying is a big part of putting the newsletter together.

This month's edition has some articles that I hope you will find relatively worthwhile reading. There are however problems that arise due to the unavailability of time due to study and work commitments, and hence there will be months where the newsletter will suffer.

A very wise person once informed me that, if you can't say anything Genuine, then don't say anything at all. If I was to be genuine, then I don't think I would last as an editor for any great length of time. But anyhow, lets give it a go.

GRR. It's that time of the month again when I have to write this great column. And just how am I supposed to be jolly and yo ho ho when the past few weeks have been full of nothing but yech and blech?

I had just turned the TV off because it wasn't worth watching. It obviously wasn't a ratings period. The ABC was featuring Country Wide where an expose was being done on the turgid life of termites. The Ethnic station, otherwise known as SBS, was screening "A Four Year Old's View of Greece.", and the commercial channels were featuring movies like "Nightmare on Elm Street Part IX -- Freddy's Revenge -- This Time He's Genuine".

But to be really genuine (there's that word again), I suppose I should be thankful that it wasn't a ratings period otherwise movie buffs are induced into a state of advanced schizophrenia by switching channels frantically to catch the best bits of "Neighbours", "State of the Century" and whatever else might be on.

Anyway, I threw the TV out the window and turned on the radio. Nothing but dribble. Banana Astley and Kylie Donovan (I'm convinced they're all the same person wearing clever disguises) were trying to tell me about how to go about solving the world's problems. Now that's genuine I thought. About a second is all I thought about it though. It's one of those things that you either grasp it straight away or you never do.

Well that rubbish didn't last long. But that left me with nothing to do. Why not put on some of my old favourite records? Now that's being genuine.

Why was "Freight Train Heart" suddenly sung in fifteen keys, like Japanese opera? Because the belt had given up the ghost, and one channel of the stereo had decided to go on sympathy strike. After being genuine about it all and jumping up and down a few dozen times on the splintered bits of timber and metal that has once been my stereo, I sat down and pondered what to do. I'd feel ridiculous playing chess, but on top of that I'd get tired swapping from one side to the other. Monopoly would become monotony, when the only person with hotels on Mayfair, Parklane and all the green ones is you and you can't afford to pay the rents when you land on them. (think about it)

What else is there to do?

Write this editorial, not just any editorial but Gospya's Editorial and above all it must be genuine. (I hope all you Gospyans out there are Genuinely satisfied)

Yours Genuinely

Matthew Athannasiadis

Are you sick and tired of being a nobody? Do you lack direction, a purpose in life? Are you sick of being beaten up by your three-year-old sister?

If your answer to any of the above questions was yes (or even if it was no), then you need to become more involved in GOSPYA. Yes, you can find fame, fortune and drag in those really hot chicks and blokes by writing something for GOSPYAN News.

Why should you write something for Gospyan News?

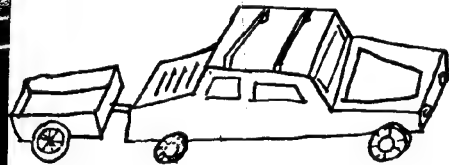

1. It is becoming the trendy thing to do -- even Michael Jackson learned to spell so that he could pretend to write a book!
2. By having your name attached to your masterpiece you can vastly improve your social standing within the framework of Gospyan society.
3. The editors have run out of ideas!

So get out your pencils, pens, typewriters and word processors and contribute.

FELLOWSHIP REPORTTerry Bozikis

Firstly, I'd like to thank all those people who are now coming regularly to our Friday night meetings. I think we get something out of it and are being challenged in different ways.

The Fellowship Subcommittee has decided on a date for a bowling night, probably Friday 16 June (Unless exams get in the way). All details will be confirmed at our next Fellowship.

The junior youth are also having a camp later in the year and I think we should give a thought about going up with them, lending a hand and having some fun. I'll keep you posted on the exact date, place, etc.

Finally, I would encourage you all to come to Fellowship as it is a part of "Living Our Orthodox Faith".

1 WHEN WE LAST LEFT OUR HERO, HE HAD JUST RECEIVED WORD THAT YANNIS IS ON A KILLING SPLURGE. THANASSIS MUST STOP HIM.

A SPECIAL GOSPIA MEETING HAS BEEN CALLED TO DISCUSS THE SITUATION...

2 SO... WHAT DO YOU THINK, THANASSIS?

I THINK WE SHOULD TAKE THE THREATS VERY SERIOUS.

WILL SOMEONE HELP US WITH COLLABATING?

BUT WHAT ABOUT THE FINANCE?

OK. WE'LL FORGET ABOUT IT. IT'S PROBABLY A HOAX.

I THINK IT IS ALL A HOAX.

3 HOLD ON... SOMEONE'S ON THE KEFTEDA TELEFONO.

YOU'D BETTER TAKE THE THREAT SERIOUSLY. JUST TO PROVE IT, I WILL KILL AN EX-COMITTEE MEMBER (IN A GRUESOME BUT IMAGINATIVE WAY) BY THE WAY, THIS IS YANNIS CALLING...

WHEN SHE LISTENS TO THAT PATHETIC MUSIC, BOOM!

HI. I'M AN ACCOUNTANT.

GO AWAY.

7 SO, YANNIS PLANTS THE EXPLOSIVE KEFTEDA IN THE VICTIM'S FAYITO.

MUM... THIS KEFTEDA TASTES FUNNY

THAT'S THE WAY THEY'RE SUPPOSED TO TASTE. NOW EAT THEM ALL!

YES MUM.

8 THAT NIGHT, AT THE TAVERNA NIGHT...

NOW A SONG FROM RICK ASTLEY!

BOY, I'VE GOT TO GET UP AND DANCE TO THIS ONE!

9 BOOM!

10 BOY... WHAT A MESS! YANNIS REALLY WASN'T KIDDING! WE'D BETTER DO SOMETHING ABOUT IT! (IN THE NEXT EPISODE).

Well folkes, here we go again, its another GOSPYA SPORTS REPORT to present to you (I really mean stuff down your throats). I must say it has been great to see the amount of sporting teams representing GOSPYA in these past months. However I must add, with all due respect, that if many more sporting teams are initiated, I won't have much damn space left to spare on my sports report. Please keep this in mind.

committee did not attend, because of exams. We'll forgive you this time guys, but there won't be a next time now will there.

Enough talk and on with the Sports Report.

VOLLYBALL: What can I say, this event has without a doubt become a most successful and popular sport with our members. With attendances skyrocketing, vollyball has made a big impact on our social scene. Characters which frequent vollyball include names such as; DOG, DZON (AS IN JOHN), THE ONE ARMED BANDIT, NUTRI-GRAIN, NIKOS, AQUA-MAN and DZIM (AS IN JIM) to name a few. Its a fun time for all, and its held on Monday nights at 7.15, so make an effort and turn up. If your like Jenny then you only turn up to go to HUNGRY JACKS afterwards.

NETBALL: The girls haven't been performing as well as they thought they would. Being in attendance at several of their games and Jenny also having played with the girls (oh the shame of it) on several occasions it was interesting to note that the score resembled that of a basketball game. Lack of support seems to be a major problem with the girls of late (with some performances I don't see why). Most guys are either getting sleep or in HOT GOSSIP on a Wednesday night. Maybe you should try some training girls, it could help, but who am I to tell you how to run your game, right. Why do I even try, its beyond me.

SOCCER: They can do no wrong, the guys have had a great season so far, or so they tell everyone. Who are we to beleive this bunch of second rate soccer hillbillies. Go out and see for yourself whether the boys are as good as they say they are. As I have never had the pleasure of watching these guys play in the TAKE-AWAY CUP (only kidding fellas), it might be worth my while to go to an actual game (and watch the whole thing, yes I love pain) before I try and put another report in. On second thoughts I'll let Jenny do that, she loves to see the guys in action. We'll forget I even said such a thing, because I would not like any court preceedings to come out of this.

BASKETBALL: GOSPYA BLUE are currently performing well in Mens 7 and there are several reasons why, but I won't go into them at this stage. The guys are in my opinion heading for a Mens 7 Grand Final. So if want to see them get there please support the guys by attending the games. Game times are listed below for everyones' benefit.

GOSPYA WHITE have had a tough season so far and I can certainly back that claim. Mens 3 is shaping up to be a difficult competition, so winning games isn't that easy, but thats not to say we haven't won any games. Everyone seems to be improving with each game, and all our games are very close even if the other teams pay the referee bribe money. Players which are really starting to fire are Wally Lewis (John Vidas), must have something to do with State of Origin time, and Manuel "The Hitman" Samios. Improving all the time are George Samios and Siffy (better known as "Joseph"). John "Three point" Sophios is also leading the way in the shooting department with help from Spiro Lentakis when he takes time out from giving speeding tickets. That leaves me; I don't do much except turn up late and score the odd point. Game times are also listed below.

DATE	TIME		DATE	TIME

18/6/89	BYE	4:05	9/7/89	7:25	4:55

TENNIS TOURNAMENT: I hate to say it but Jenny Sclavos has done a great job in organising the GOSPYA-APYGON Tennis Tournament. The event was a complete success even though we didn't win outright. I'am sure I express everyones' opinion when I say that it was a fun day for all, even though I didn't turn up for most of it. Our SPORTS COMMITTEE wishes to thank APYGON for a great conjoint event, and all those who helped with organisation. Congradulations to the winners of each group section and the social fixtures,we hope you like the trophies. I bet you all can't wait until next time.
